

Where do you go?

Where do you go throughout the week?

Name three places. What is something you could do for God in each place? Or, what opportunities might you have to talk about God to others in these places?

